Coffee from four to seven years old, the yield from which for 1889 has been 700 Office piculs of cleaned coffee. 3. The price to be paid to the Vendor is 850,000 in Cash and $40,000 in deferred

Such shares will receive no dividend until the end of the fourth year, dating from 1st January 1890, the ordinary shares receiving 10% per unnum in the meantime if the profits admit of it.

Of the total of undivided profits at the end of the fourth year, a sum equal to 10% on the whole Capital, or my less amount available, shall be set aside for a Reserve Fund; and of the balance then remaining, any, a sum not exceeding $16,000 shalt be paid to the Vendor as accumulated dividends on the 800 deferred shares, and any further balance shall be carried to the Reserve Fund. In the fifth and succeeding years the ordinary and deferred shares wil. rank equally for dividend.

4. It is proposed to open up 200 acres of new land in the first year, and thereafter further portions of the Estates in regular order until the whole of the Capital has been invested.

A call of $10 per share will be made on let January 1891, and a similar call on Ist January 1892, and it is expected that this will suffice to plant and maintain until ready for bearing, about 400 acres.

5. At a very moderate estimate the yield for 1890 should be 800 piculs of cleaned coffee, and should increase by 150 to 200 piculs per annum until the outturn reaches about 7 piculs cleaned coffee per acre planted, a result which may reasonably be expected, and which has, it is believed, been. attained both in Johore and the Protested

The average price realized for the present at 4 p.m. crop of 700 piculs, has been $27 per picul, and the following figures will show the expected results, estimating at $25 per picul 800 picula in 1890 at $25 yield . . $20,000

A report was prepared by the then Acting Secretary of the Board, and after baving received the approval of the members it was transmitted to the Government. Before this document was submitted to the burial process, action was taken with regard to one of the nuisances—a certain squatter village which the name of a well-known resident helped to designate. After this burst of activity the authorities relapsed into the usual state of passivity until another cleaning up season came round and the Fever Commission's report re-appeared on the surface. Thinking that there had not been enough reporting on this subject, and that at any rate it was necessary to con the public that the annual period of awakening had come round, another message was sent to the Sanitary Board, requesting another report on the same matters with regard to which it had expressed its opinion twelve months. ago. To vary the monotony one or two additional subjects were thrown in, and a similar request to report was, it would ap-much benefit in the Central and Eastern districts. They may have erred in selecting the Eucalyptus tree, but that does not offect the value of their general opinion that the Western district would be improved if it had some of the vegetation of the Eastern district. Mr Brown does not actually say in concluding his remarks on this subject he complains about their preventing, the roads the surface, increasing the cost of mainten-10 1.00 ance and rendering the locality, more humid. Even were it impossible otherwise to obtain good roads, we doubt if the residents would willingly see the trees along neen's R end cut down. But it ought not to be more difficult to obtain good roads and cool shade in Hongkong, than it is in many other places where the two exist together. If a really honest attempt were made to construct good roads, we need not fear much ab ut the damage that the trees are likely to do to them. During the recent drizzling rains, the road in the part of Queen's Road that is most shaded-the part from Ice House Lane to the City Hall. -was not nearly so had as in many exposed places along the Braya East and West, the reason doubtless being that some. what more care had been bestowed on, and a little better material used in the making of that central part of our chief thoroughlare. In the same manner, but with a mewhat Is the causes of the outbreak of fever that more cause, the Eurveyor General runs tilt occurred in the upper levels of the West- against the Commissioners with regard to ern district in the autumn of 1886 are not earth-cutting. The medical gentlemen had by this time well known it has not been for not sufficient ground for their sweeping want of discussion or of reports on the sub- recommonadtion that earth-cutting should jest. A Commission of medical men be suspended for about six menths, may nursed the subject for several months, and have they although had evidence to after much cogitation produced an elaborate suppose that under certain conditions excavations of earth might be prejudicial to and making recommendations for its pre- the health of the immediate neighbourhood. In certain districts of the United Kingdom, the proximity of large granite quarries is the last meeting of the Sanitary Board the and bottled by ourselves, thus enabling us results of these anquiries were laid on the We cannot say that either the report of state the name and quantity of Wine or the Surveyor General percof the Sanitary Superintendent, brings us much forwarder. Mr Brown expresses a guarded approval of certain of the Commission's recommendations and dissents from others. After all. we may have derived some compensating advantage from the inactivity of the: $1.00. Government. Had it adopted in succession all the suggestions that have been made since the fever-broke out, it would have been in the position of the man who tried. to please all his counsellors even to the point of carrying his own ass. Many of the suggestions have been of the kind made by the advisers in the fable. It was no doubt unwise to overburden the ass, but it was equally stupid of the man to take all the burden on his own shoulders. So, while it would endanger the health of the Colony. to allow the island to be covered with thick jungle through which the rays, of the sun could not pierce, it would be equally prejudicial to abolish the Afforestation Department and cut down all our trees; which would seem to be the logical sequence of Mr Brown's remarks. In this as in most things it is the justo milien that ought to be striven after. That the climate of Hong-Pints. | kong has been improved by tree planting is, we think, an indisputable fact. Not only do the trees afford coolness and shade, but they help to awesten the atmosphere -a blessing for which we cannot be too thankful in a place like Hongkong. Of course if vegetation is allowed to aprend unchecked it may be become as injurious as it was beneficial. There may be cases quently discussed in the Sanitary Board, said to affect the health of the inhabitadte, lain in tome Government pigeon-trole for not had conclusive proof of soluti danger, Transfer Books of the China Fire Insuration about eighteen months, it was unearthed to health from earth-cutting, there have during a spring cleaning up, and about been several suspicious cases which should twelve months ago there came a letter to lead us to use all the precautions possible Insurance Co., Ltd., closed from this the Sanitary Board requesting it to report in making excavations. We do not think

But this generally believed that Mr Kiu Ka Chin fever, which is almost periodical, may be of a serious or of a light character, and one of the chief elements in the difference is the sanitary condition of the neighbourhood We thoroughly agree with Mr Brown that the seriousness of the outbreak in the Western district was mainly due to the insanitary condition of the densely inhabited native quarter situated immediately below. A more abundant supply of water, a slight improvement in the drainage, the clearing away of the evil-smelling squatters' village and the abatement of other nuisances complained of, fully explain the change for the better that has taken place within the last two or three years. And if Mr Chadwick and the Surveyor General can materially to Europe. 29th January. It was Mr Fronde who said. One never knows exacly what is inside a Chinaman, but our Municipal Council in the Report $ 58,450.18 published in your issue of 25th Jan., says that ' the demoscour of the natives in and near the Concession towards foreigners has become distinctly unfriendly. This demeanour is doubtless the external evidence I have examined the Books, Vouchers of an internal fact; but the Report only stated a half truth when it gave as a reason of this hostility the dilutoriness of officials in punishing the principal offenders in last year's riot. It would be a lasting benefit to a cosmopolitan public, if some competent person would write a book on the Philoso. phy of Chinese Hostility. The writer of these lines who is no pessimist, is almost positively sure that the logical outcome of such a book would be a clear demonstration of the fact that it is the foreigner who usually causes the hostility in China, This is not a pleasant reflection; it is very humbaided by those rebei or brigand natives and ling to our pride; it puts us in the position desort. the man who when he reformed, found planned and carried out a very clever and that affairs in the village went along ranged a series of tracks in connection which means that when you observe a with the selected spot.
